

A potluck is being arranged for Range War – Friday night.

From Faygo Kid

C.W. Shadow and Marshall Washburn are bringing about 25-30 16oz. steaks to Range War again this year. So, I talked to Sinola and got the ok to do a Pot Luck dinner on Friday night starting around 6 pm. I've arranged for people to grill the steaks and the ladies will take care of the dishes and goodies the other people bring.

We're thinking around 50 people max. Those interested or that have questions to contact me via email at faygo.kid@yahoo.com.

Steak sounds nice to me!!
